2009 Journal of African Literature

Released

The 2009 JAL No. 6 has been released.

We proudly present an important contribution which integrates the oral traditions of African writing within new and contemporary expressions and explores the literary permutations of oral and indigenous traditions in the works of African writers.

Contributors and Press reviewers may direct enquiries for a complimentary PDF copy of complete Journal edition to orders@africaresearch.org
Please note that the editors no longer handle requests to forward Journal copies.

Best regards
From IRCALC Editors
